

How we communicate at university?

idea 1: Communication at University

- The role of communication in academic and personal growth
- Differences between high school and university communication
- various communication channels at university(verbal, written, digital)

idea 2: Communicating with Professors

- The importance of establishing a positive professor-student relationship
- How to effectively communicate with professors through emails and in-person meetings
- Seeking help and feedback from professors

idea 3: Interactions with Peers

- Collaborative learning and group project
- Effective communication within study groups
- Building a supportive academic community

idea 4: Academic Writing and Research Communication

- Understanding academic writing styles and formats
- Citations, references, and avoiding plagiarism
- Communicating research findings effectively

idea 5: Presentations and Speaking

- Preparing and delivering academic presentations
- Overcoming public speaking anxiety
- Using visual aids effectively

idea 6: Career Development Communication

- making a compelling resume and cover letter
- Networking with professors, and potential employers,
- building strong relationships
- developing your skills

idea 7: Conflict Resolution and Problem Solving

- Identifying common sources of conflict in academic settings
- Strategies for resolving conflicts with peers, professors, or administrators
- Problem-solving through effective communication
- talking about examples (students)

idea 8: Leadership and Effective Communication

- Developing leadership skills through communication
- Leading group projects and student organizations
- Effective communication in leadership roles idea 9: Digital Communication and Online Presence

- Managing and utilizing social media for academic and professional purposes
- Creating and maintaining a professional online presence
- Ethical considerations in online communication