

Part one :

B)-Mastery of the language

Activity one: Fill in the gaps with the most appropriate words.

▪ The UN maintains close working ..... with 15 international organizations that have been designated as "specialized agencies" of the UN, even though they are independent legal ..... . Each specialized agency operates ..... under the UN's umbrella, with its own governing body, procedural ....., membership, and funding mechanisms.

▪ The F.A.O. (..... & ..... Organization, ..... ) coordinates international efforts to fight hunger and improve nutrition and food security.

▪ The I.C.A.O. (International ..... Organization, ..... ) works with the ..... member states to facilitate safe, efficient and sustainable international ..... travel.

▪ Since it was founded in 1919, The I.L.O. (International ..... Organization, ..... ) has solicited input from national governments, employers, and workers to establish internationally recognized labor standards enshrined in ..... treaties. The ILO was designated as the first specialized agency of the UN in .....

▪ The I.M.O. (International ..... Organization, ..... ) is responsible for maintaining the regulatory framework that governs the international ..... industry, ensuring a level playing field of universally recognized safety, security, and environmental standards for ship operators.

▪ The U.N.W.T.O (United Nations World Organization, ..... ) works with national governments and private stakeholders to promote ..... as a driver of ..... growth and development.

▪ The W.H.O (World ..... Organization, ..... ) coordinates efforts among its member states to improve the ..... of individuals and the provision of ..... services.

▪ The W.I.P.O. (World Intellectual ..... Organization, ..... ) provides a policy forum for drafting and revising the treaty-based rules that recognize intellectual ..... at the international level transfers.

▪ The W.B. World ....., ..... ) is an international ..... organization which aims to reduce poverty by providing ....., policy advice, and technical ..... to ..... countries. It consists of two core institutions. The I.B.R.D (International Bank for ..... and ..... ) and the I.D.A. (the International ..... ).