Grammar: The simple future

1- The forms of the simple future:

The simple future is formed as follows:

will/'ll+verb

2- The affirmative form of the simple future:

I, you, he, she, it, they	Will/ 'll	go
---------------------------	-----------	----

Examples:

I think I'll buy a new computer.

I will open the door, Someone is ringing the bell.

3- The interrogative form of the simple future:

Will	I, you, he, she, it, we, they	go ?
------	-------------------------------	------

Examples: Will you buy a computer ?

Will you go to the library ?

4- The negative form of the simple future:

I, you, he, she, it, we, they	Will not /Won't	go
-------------------------------	-----------------	----

Examples:

I will not stay at home if I finish the homework.

I won't visit Big Ben if I go to London.

5- The use of the simple future:

- We use the simple future for instant decisions, example: I've left the door open, I'll close it.
- We use the simple future, when we predict a future situation, example: She'll pass the exam, She's hard working.
- We use the simple future in conditional sentences type one example: If I have enough time, I'll watch the film.
