II- Complete the following paragraph using the suggested words. One word does not fit. (06 pts)

- bankruptcy - trader – private – insolvency - formal – ~~court~~ - debts –

In law, a civil act governs relationships between private individuals, while a commercial act involves transactions conducted by a trader in the context of business. When a party fails to meet an obligation, a formal notice may precede legal action, especially in cases of joint liability. If a trader stops paying their debts, this is a commercial offence known as bankruptcy fraud, which constitutes a criminal offence. In civil matters, however, it is simply regarded as insolvency.
