

Final evaluation test

Exercise n1

Select the best answer for each question.

Question 1

Legal English is challenging primarily because:

- a) It uses simple everyday vocabulary
- b) It employs extensive specialized terminology with precise meanings
- c) All lawyers write in the same way
- d) It doesn't require any learning effort.

Question 2

According to the text, which of the following is a problem created by uncertainty and ambiguity in legal terminology?

- a) It makes law easier to understand
- b) The reader must infer meaning from context
- c) It reduces the need for interpretation
- d) It improves legal communication

Question 3

In legal discourse, rhetoric can be described as:

- a) Always negative and misleading
- b) Only the art of persuasive expression
- c) Positive (art of persuasive expression) or negative (misleading language)
- d) A mathematical concept

Question 4

What is the difference between legality and legalism?

- a) They mean exactly the same thing
- b) Legality = strict conformity with law; Legalism = excessive formalistic attachment to rules often at the expense of substance
- c) Legalism is more important than legality
- d) Neither has legal significance

Exercise n2:

True or Fals Question

1. Legal English presents considerable challenges only for native speakers of English. True / Fals
2. All legal terminology originates from English sources. True / Fals.
3. The meanings of words remain static and never change over time. True / Fals.
4. The term "legality" and "legalism" mean the same thing. True / Fals.

Exercice n3:

Match the following legal concepts with their correct definitions

1-Consideration particular a) The specialized vocabulary characteristic of a profession or discipline

2-Legal jargon b) A valuable element exchanged between contracting parties, necessary for contract formation

3-Rhetoric c) The art of persuasive and effective expression in speech or writing

4- Verbosity d) Excessive wordiness or unnecessarily elaborate expression

