

Homographs and Homophones

Homophones	Homographs
Homophones are words with the same pronunciation but with different spelling & meanings. Here are just some of the many examples of homophones in English: Buy, by Counsel= advisor Consul= diplomat	Homographs are those words that have the same spelling but completely different meanings. Here are just some of the many examples of homographs in English: Wound (injury) or wound (past tense of wind) Fair (reasonable/just) or fair (festival)

