

Part one :

B)-Mastery of the language

Activity one: Fill in the gaps with the most appropriate words.

- The focal of President Erdogan’s visit to Algeria will be the convening of the second session of the High-Level Council between Turkey and Algeria. Both, President Erdogan and President Tebboune, are expected to preside over the council’s deliberations, addressing crucial aspects of cooperation and between the two This meeting follows the shared of Algeria and Turkey to collaboration in various, including trade, economy, security, cultural exchanges. The High-Level Cooperation Council serves as a for discussions aimed at strengthening and fostering mutual

- JEDDAH, Sunday, November 19th, 2023. - The Organization of (O.I.C.) strongly the series of mass massacres and successive crimes by the occupation, the latest of which was the massacre in the UNRWA-affiliated Tal al-Zaatar and al-Fakhoura in the northern Gaza , which left hundreds of and, most of whom were displaced and The O.I.C. also condemned the heinous crime committed by the Israeli occupation in the Al-Shifa Complex, the forcible evacuation of the citizens, the, the wounded, and the medical, and its conversion into a closed barracks.

- -..... condemning the illegal Israeli regime's in the Gaza Strip have continued to take place in various around the despite the repression of the security in some countries. The protests have been taking place even the United States itself where the government has continued to material and financial to the violent Israeli regime. In addition to the United States, in England, another country that supports the regime of in its killings in Gaza, hundreds of people protested yesterday and gathered in front of the offices in Downing when the Prime Minister of the was in talks with Kamalla Haris. , Vice President of the United States.

- South Africa joins the world in horror at the war crimes being committed in Palestine through the of civilians,, U.N. and other vulnerable targets. These actions remind us of our experiences as South Africans living under This is one of the key reasons South Africans, like people in cities all over the world, have taken to the streets to express their and concern at what is taking place in Gaza and the West Last week, South Africa withdrew all its from for consultation over assault in Gaza.

- Africa has filed a referral to the International Criminal Court for an into alleged crimes committed by in Gaza, South African President Cyril Ramaphosa said. The move comes as South African lawmakers were expected to a motion on Thursday calling for the closure of the in South Africa and the cutting of all diplomatic with the country until it agrees to a-fire.
- November 2nd 2023, United Nations experts said in a joint that in Gaza were at “grave of genocide.” And on October 28th, the director of the New York office of the U.N. High Commissioner for Human stepped because, as he wrote in his letter, “we are seeing a genocide unfolding before our in Gaza and the Organization that we serve appears to stop it.”
- “It’s important to remember that there is no among crimes under law,” Amnesty International said in a statement. “As stated in the of the Rome of the International Criminal Court; genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes all are ‘the most serious of concern to the international as a whole and must not go”.
- After pressure, the International Criminal Court has announced that it is carrying out an into war perpetrated by in its relentless onslaught on affirmed that Gazans are enduring “unimaginable”, describing the situation of innocent people trapped in a war they cannot as untenable. “The prosecutor called on to international law, stressing that civilian - namely homes, mosques, churches, schools and hospitals - cannot be under international humanitarian law”.
- The National (N.H.R.C.) called upon the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to urgently work in cooperation with all to apply to put an immediate end to the occupations against the Gaza Strip. N.H.R.C. stressed the importance of cooperation in holding war criminals.
- “..... mass bombings and denial of food, water, and electricity are calculated to the Palestinian in Gaza,” Katherine Gallagher, senior attorney at the Center for Constitutional and a legal representative for victims in the pending I.C.C. in Palestine, told the “U.S. officials can be held responsible for their to prevent unfolding genocide, as well as for their, by encouraging it and materially it” .
